This spacious family house has been entirely reformed using the highest quality materials and levels of interior design. Mixing Mediterranean style with Nordic design influences and materials, this house presents a stunning mixture of breath-taking views, qualities of material, practical usable space and family living. Sitting high above Santa Ponsa, the “wow” moment start as soon as you open the front door. A view out across the golf courses and mountains surrounding Santa Ponsa only gets better as you walk into the split level lounge, the expansive open sea views are phenomenal from the lounge. As you progress though the interior designed house, you realise that these views are from almost every room, all bedrooms have amazing views as well as each one being beautifully fitted with unique en-suite bathrooms and custom made lighting and fitted furniture. The master suite has full wrap around views as well as one of the most incredible view...
